You are Saving Lives

When I look at the statistics each year, they’re not just numbers to me. Each and everyone of them is a life saved, a life changed. Rose Brooks Center could not accomplish any of this without generous supporters like you. You are truly saving lives. This year, because of you, Rose Brooks Center helped 15,000 individuals, families, and pets move beyond a life filled with violence and move towards a future filled with hope.

We are fortunate at Rose Brooks Center to have incredible staff, board, and volunteers, whose passion and expertise provide life-saving services and continue to make our agency a national model of excellence. Because of their incredible work and insight, Rose Brooks Center’s programs continue to be recognized and replicated across the country. None of this would be possible without you.

I also look at our statistics and am struck by how vital our services continue to be in our community. These numbers show the real and undeniable need for comprehensive domestic violence support. Because of you, as long as this need continues, Rose Brooks Center will be there to offer safety, support, and solutions to individuals and families escaping domestic violence.

Thank you for saving lives in our community and beyond.

A message from
Susan Miller, CEO

Our Mission
The Mission of Rose Brooks Center is to break the cycle of domestic violence so that individuals and families can live free of abuse.

Our Vision
Rose Brooks Center envisions a world free of domestic violence. We will serve as a leader of innovative comprehensive family violence services, sharing our legacy of hope through advocacy, education, and empowerment.

“I couldn’t imagine leaving my abuser without Daisy. I would have stayed just to keep her safe if it wasn’t for Rose Brooks Center’s Paws Place. I will be forever grateful to them for being a safe haven for my entire family.”

- Jess, a former resident, with her dog Daisy
